

CITY IN BRIEF

Cowboy Training Camp.

Down at Lowell, right where the cars stop, two or three draymen have established a sort of cowboy training camp. All of them are more or less expert in the use of the lasso, and while away idle moments lassoing each other, if no outside victim can be found. A young boy never has a chance to bet by the place without being roped in, and the horses of those they know, an occasional mule and even dogs are compelled to serve as targets. Yesterday afternoon one came thus entangled became highly indignant and when his captors tried to release him he snapped viciously at them, meanwhile trying to bite the rope in two in order to get free. After the animal struggled for ten minutes he let some of the men approach near enough to release him, having become tired out by his own efforts.

"Tangle" to Tombstone.

"Tangle" Johnson, with Constable Bailey, left last night for Tombstone, where both are wanted as witnesses before the grand jury, presumably in connection with Lowell's recent gambling case, although they did not know themselves what they were summoned for. They drove over in a carriage.

On Hunting Trip.

G. K. Reynolds, secretary of the board of trade, has laid aside traffic problems and baseball worries for about a week and has betaken himself to Lewis Springs, where he will spend a few days hunting. He's promised his friends a mess of quail upon his return, so it is earnestly hoped that he will be successful.

Quite a Burg.

Out at the Bisbee Extension new houses are springing up nearly every day and the settlement about the mine threatens to develop into a real town one of these days. The mine is once more running, after the breakdown occasioned by an injury to the machinery, and good progress is being made in operations. The settlement about the mine now numbers over half-a-dozen houses.

Overland From Tombstone.

Charles Stone, the wrestler, and Jack Jackson, who were in Tombstone Thursday as witnesses in a case before the grand jury, made the trip there and back by carriage. Stone had his shotgun along and proceeded to bag several quail and rabbits, both going and on the return trip. They arrived in town late Thursday night.

Visiting His Father.

John S. Williams, Jr., superintendent of the Nacozari, Copper company, is in Bisbee, the guest of his father, John S. Williams, at his home in Tombstone canyon.

Daniels Will Visit.

Ben Daniels, formerly U. S. Marshal for Arizona, but now stationed in Wyoming as Indian agent, is expected to arrive in the territory within a short time, to pay a visit to friends.

Corella in Bisbee.

Antonio Corella, a well known merchant of Culiacan, Sonora, passed a portion of yesterday in this city on business. Mr. Corella is a brother of Col. Corella commanding the Mexican troops quartered at Ciudad, Juarez.

Casey Visits Town.

J. P. Casey arrived in Bisbee yesterday. Mr. Casey was indicted by the grand jury at Tombstone Thursday upon the charge of making false report of corporate affairs and embezzlement. He had no farther statement than that he is confident that the outcome of the trial will prove his innocence.

Fire Department Called.

A quantity of gasoline being used to clean clothes for the Wardrobe became ignited yesterday morning by an electric spark and before the flames spread from the tub in which the tub in which the gasoline was to the clothes hanging on a nearby line drying. Harry Newcomb was slightly burned while fighting the flames. The fire department was called out and soon extinguished the blaze.

The Deep Things of Life.

The hymn line: "Cast your deadly doing down" was long ago discredited and laughed out of court. Nevertheless, one who pins faith to countless activities, even of philanthropy and reform, who is contemptuous of poetry, philosophy and religion, who forgets to draw from the perennial wells of courage and inspiration, will sooner or later walk in a barren land of petty interests, unable to discover the springs of refreshment.

Brief and to the Point.

There is no superfluous verbiage in the note which a tradesman sent to a dilatory creditor: "Sir, the enclosed is a bill. If you pay it, I will oblige you. If you don't, I shall oblige you."

English Language Supreme.

There are now over 250,000 words in the English language acknowledged by the best authorities, or about 70,000 more than in the German, French, Spanish and Italian languages combined.

FAMOUS PACER WILL RACE AT THE FAIR

PHOENIX, Oct. 29.—The fair commission has received an acceptance from M. W. Savage, the owner of the famous pacer, Dan Patch, to its proposals to race the horse here during the fair week. The terms were very satisfactory to the commission. The great pacer, holder of the world's record, will race at Phoenix Tuesday, Nov. 9, and on that day will make an attempt to break his own world's record.

In addition to Dan Patch, another horse belonging to Mr. Savage will be seen here fair time. The horse is Minor Heir, almost as well known as the famous pacer. Minor Heir has a racing record of 2:00 1/4 and has done the mile in 1:59 1/4.

Two years ago Dan Patch raced at the Territorial fair. At that time he lowered the track record to 1:57 1/4. His own record is 1:55 made at Minneapolis. It is the fastest mile ever made by a harness horse.

Dan Patch is not entered for the Copper state. Entries closed for that class September 15. Dan Patch will race with Minor Heir and give exhibition races on other days during the fair. It is said that Mr. Savage was induced to send the great pacer here because his driver, H. C. Hersey, thinks the fair track is one of the fastest in the country and that it will be a splendid opportunity for the champion to lower his record.

The terms are as follows: The owner of Dan Patch receives 65 per cent of the total gate and grand stand receipts over and above the average total gate and grandstand receipts for the same day on the two preceding years. In other words Mr. Savage exhibits great faith in the drawing powers of his horse. When it is considered that Detroit recently paid him $2,000 for some exhibition races and that he will not even get in on the prize money offered by the fair commission the terms may be said to be remarkably favorable from the Arizona side. The cost of sending the horses here from Minneapolis where they are now is something of an item as it means a special car, heavy railroad fares and attendants' salaries.

Dan Patch is now thirteen years old. He is a beautiful dark brown stallion and has had a marvelous track history. He was sired by Joe Patchen, one of the great race horses of his day. Patchen's record was 2:01 1/4. H. C. Hersey is the driver who has urged on Dan Patch to victory in a hundred or more races and drove him faster than any harness horse ever went before. He will come to Phoenix and drive him here as he did two years ago.

Another possible feature of the fair is Glen Curtis, the aviator. The fair commission is making every effort to get him to come to Phoenix. Curtis is now in Detroit and telegrams were sent yesterday to that city to bring to bear on him every possible influence. If Mr. Curtis doesn't bring his aeroplane to Phoenix it will not be the fault of the commission.

Feud Simply Settled. In western China European travelers recently found a simple method of settling disputes. One of them writes: "While we called the village, half at Tach-sha, we asked the villagers concerning some new graves which we noticed in a field close by. They answered: 'Our head man and two others were killed three months ago in a feud with a village higher up the hills. 'Is it settled now?' 'Yes. 'Did you report the matter to Lao-wo?' 'No. What would have been the use? 'How?' 'Oh, we killed eight of the others.'"

Heroic Doc. Doc Robinson approached a reporter and asked: "Ever see a man pull his own tooth?" The reporter replied that he never did. Doc had a chew of tobacco in his mouth. He threw this out, inserted a pair of forceps in his mouth and pulled a tooth that had been bothering him.—Atchison Globe.

Value of Education. A man carries his own luck and the best tool he can use is a good education. It never grows dull, but is always bright and sharp for his purpose. When others fall or become rusty it always can be relied upon to do its work.

NEVER WORRY.

Are Out of the Running. One always regards married men with families as men on the retired list of life, as far as progress is concerned. One does not expect them to aid humanity, to break rough ground, to act as pioneers or even allies. They are fettered by their private duties.—London Dispatch.

ADDITIONS TO NUMBER OF PRISONERS JAILED

Two additions have been made to the number of prisoners in the county jail, according to Deputy Albie Howe, who passed through the city last evening on his way to Douglas. They are Fred Pike, wanted in Pinal county for assault with a deadly weapon and Ramon Romero held at Gleason for burglary. They were brought in Wednesday.

Sheriff McGee, of Pinal county arrived in Tombstone yesterday to take charge of Pike, whose offense was committed several months ago. He was living in Bisbee under an assumed name, but hearing that the officers were after him went to Courtland where he was caught by a deputy sheriff.

Romero is believed to be a member of the gang which broke into the Taylor store at Gleason several weeks ago. When his home was searched a number of articles identified as belonging to the store were found in it. The arrest was made by Deputy King.

TIBURON PARTY STARTS FOR ISLAND

"Tangle" Johnson received a letter yesterday from Joe Beala, with the Tiburon expedition at Guaymas, and the party is now under sail, having left Guaymas yesterday. Johnson, owing to the fact that he was summoned before the grand jury, was unable to join the expedition as originally intended, therefore will be unable to visit Tiburon on this trip.

Beala said in his letter that everybody was well and confident of success. They had considerable difficulty, however, in getting their clearance papers from Guaymas and were held up several days as a consequence. They set sail with 22 soldiers of the Mexican army, in a two-masted schooner, which they purchased there. They are probably on the island by this time.

Seware of Mind Wobbling. To a certain degree we are the masters of our fate and the captains of our souls—as the poet says. By strong will and fidelity to ideals we can rise superior to circumstances. The trouble is that many waste time in letting their minds wobble. Get over the undecided habit of mind wobbling.

Illustrated News. The man in the street leaves no one in doubt as to his love for the picture page. Even the few staid respectable old-fashioned, influential papers that may be thought to regard pictures as infra dig. in the editorial columns are being convinced that the advertising man knows their value.—Process Engravers' Monthly.

Authoritative. A lady novelist writing a political story wants information as to how a political convention is conducted. Generally speaking the convention is opened with prayer and a razor.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
